Spring Term

Friday 8th March 2019

Dear Parents

Our Shakespearean themed Book Week has been thoroughly enjoyed by children and staff. Each class had their own Shakespeare play to learn about and took part in lots of learning activities related to the text. They also had the opportunity to experience Shakespearean life with a range of interactive artefacts and factual quiz. The theme continues next week when we will be visited by Anthony Glenn - 'Shaking up Shakespeare' who will be putting on a Macbeth performance and workshops for KS2.

I would like to thank all of the children and staff for making a tremendous effort to participate in World Book Character Dress-Up Day. There were some wonderfully unique and original costumes this year, including Shakespearean characters... more to come in the end of term video newsletter.

A massive thank you to Ms Townsend, our Literacy Lead for organising such a varied and interesting Book Week.

Best wishes

Mrs Figen Bektaşoğlu
Headteacher
